THE VIETNAM WAR: A Chronology of War

Edited by Colonel Raymond K. Bluhm, Jr.

Foreword by Senator Jim Webb

THE VIETNAM WAR: A CHRONOLOGY OF WAR (Universe Publishing; ISBN: 978-0-7893-1897-8; $50.00; September 2010) is a richly detailed, day-by-day history of the significant Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and Air Force events from the Vietnam War, from the pre-war role of military advisors, to the 1975 fall of Saigon. Each entry is full of historical information and identifies the date, location, and military units involved, while introductory essays place these events within the context of the overall conflict. This encyclopedic account of the history of the Vietnam War comes to life with original photos and colorful art from the collections of all four services and military artists. With a foreword by U.S. Senator Jim Webb, a distinguished Marine Corps veteran of the Vietnam War, this volume includes one of the most powerful voices from this often-unsung generation of servicemen and women. THE VIETNAM WAR: A CHRONOLOGY OF WAR comes with a unique cover featuring a 3-dimensional replica of the U.S. Vietnam Service Medal and is a handsome addition to any military history collection. Meant to be passed from generation to generation by veterans, today's military personnel, and students of military history, this book will serve as an invaluable reference tool, giving the war and those who served a fitting and long over due place in the annals of American history.
